

Animals of the Civil War

ACW is an historical archive site for the contributions of the Animal Soldier during the Civil War of 1861.

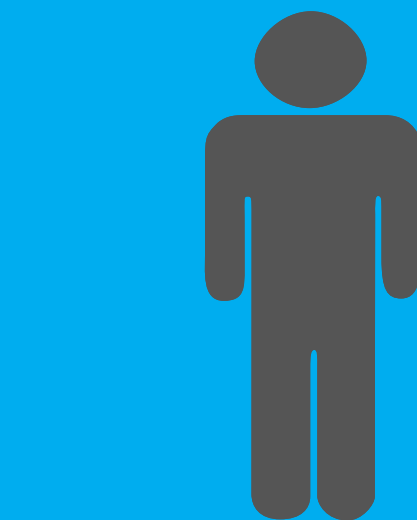

Domestic animals were an essential resource during the Civil War that often goes unnoticed when evaluating America's history. From tracking down enemies to carrying precious cargo to delivering pertinent information - dogs, horses, and birds alike contributed to the war effort that would decide the fate of slavery. Now, the Civil War enthusiast can familiar themselves to these vital characters of war by viewing their profiles and studying their role in the war.

Personas

Mr. Black is a Civil War enthusiast. He's looking to expand his knowledge on war strategy during 1861.

Mrs. Pink is a History teacher at Grand Ledge High School and is looking for new material to share with her class.

Student Rick is taking Mrs. Pink's History class and has decided to write his final project on animal soldiers in the Civil War!

Comps

- 1) http://www.nytimes.com/slideshow/2011/07/07/opinion/Disunion_Mascots.html?_r=0
- 2) <http://www.civilwar.org/education/teachers/lesson-plans/civil-war-animal-mascot-lesson-plan/civil-war-animal-mascots.html?referrer=https://www.google.com/>
- 3) <http://www.history.com/news/war-animals-from-horses-to-glowworms-7-incredible-facts>